

Get a jump-start on private scholarships for the 2010/2011 college academic year.

Join us for the:

The Scholarship Fest & Essay Workshops

Dates: Saturdays Oct 3, 10, & 17

Registration deadline: September 28, 2009

The Latinos of Tomorrow goal for the Fall 09 Scholarship Fest and Essay Workshop is to help seniors in high school and college students get a jump-start in identifying and preparing to apply for college scholarship opportunities for the 2010/2011 academic year. Did you know that private scholarships at Colleges or Universities have application deadlines starting in November, 2009? Be prepared and take advantage of this learning opportunity.

We have limited slots and advance registration is required to participate. Application deadline is Sept. 28,2009.

- Learn current trends on how to apply for and receive scholarships
- Meet local college advisors and recruiters
- Get individual help in writing college and scholarship essays
- Find up to the minute scholarship information
- Year round support in your college and scholarship efforts
- Open to all students regardless of citizen status.

For registration forms and additional information please contact: Robert Barrientos at rjbarrientos@kc.rr.com or call 816 931-0607.

Sponsors:

